Cl. 61.—Royal Warrant. Temporary Half Pay of Departmental Officers.

(Issued as a special Army Circular on 20th June.)

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS we deem it expedient that the power given to our Secretary of State for War, to place on temporary half pay certain officers of the departments of our Army, who may be removed from full pay for other causes than sickness, reduction of establishment, or length of service, shall be extended so as to embrace all such officers.

Our will and pleasure is that our Secretary of State be empowered, and he is hereby empowered, to remove any such officer from full pay, should he deem such a course advisable on public grounds, and to place him on a temporary and reduced rate of half pay of such amount, and for such period, as he shall see fit, taking into his consideration the length and character of the services rendered by the officer to the public.

Given at our Court at St. James's this 1st day of June, 1868, in the 31st year of our reign.

By her Majesty's Command,
J. S. PAKINGTON.

Cl. 62.—Royal Warrant. Pay of Lieutenants of Royal Malta Fencible Artillery.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS we did constitute our Royal Warrant of the 3rd February, 1866, the sole authority for the pay of the officers and men of our Army, and whereas no provision is made in the said Warrant or in any Warrant subsequently granted by us, for the special rate of pay hitherto issued to the junior Lieutenants of our Royal Malta Fencible Artillery.

Our will and pleasure is, that from the date of the promulgation of this present Warrant in our dependency of Malta, the junior half of the establishment of Lieutenants of the said corps shall revert to the pay formerly granted to them, namely, 5*s.* 3*d.* a-day.

That part therefore of our Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866, which provides for the pay of Lieutenants, is hereby cancelled, and the pay of those officers shall for the future be regulated as follows:—

Cl. 63.—Royal Warrant Granting the Re-engagement Penny to Colonial Corps.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS we have been pleased to take into our gracious consideration the claims of the non-commissioned officers and men of the undermentioned colonial corps to the additional pay of 1*d* a-day, granted by our Royal Warrant of the 29th June last, to soldiers who have re-engaged for a second period of service.

Our will and pleasure is that non-commissioned officers and men serving in our West India Regiments, Ceylon Rifles, and Cape Mounted Rifles on and after the date of the promulgation of this present Warrant in General Orders at the station where they may be serving, shall, if they have completed a first period of limited service or, in the case of soldiers enlisted for unlimited service, if they have served continuously, and have completed ten years' approved service towards pension on discharge, be granted an addition of 1*d*. a day to the several rates of pay assigned to them by our Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866.

Given at our Court at Windsor this 19th day of June, 1868, in the 31st year of our reign. By her Majesty's Command,

J. S. PAKINGTON.

Cl. 64.—Allowance to Officers employed on Transfers, Remains, and Surveys of Stores.

1. An allowance of 5*s*. a day will be granted to the officer appointed under the rules laid down in Clause 30, Army Circulars, 1867, to take stock and witness the transfer of stores from one officer to another; but this allowance will not be granted to the out-going or in-coming officer, or to an officer of the department the stores of which are being transferred.

2. A similar allowance will be granted to an officer appointed to take a remain of stores, but it will not be issuable to an officer of the department of the stores of which a remain is being taken.

3. This allowance will not be granted to an officer when employed in the survey or inspection of stores, but if he be so employed away from his fixed station, he will be granted the usual travelling expenses and personal allowance sanctioned by Royal Warrants (War Office Circulars, Nos. 204 and 883).

4. The allowance sanctioned by paragraphs 1 and 2 will not be issued, whether at home or abroad, until specially authorized by the Secretary of State; and will not be granted when the usual travelling expenses and personal allowance are received.

Cl. 65.—Passages—Soldiers' Children.

Passages will not be granted at the public expense to soldiers' sons above fourteen years of age, but free conveyance will be allowed to the unmarried daughters of soldiers, without limitation in regard to age.

Cl. 66.—Marking Flannel Shirts.

1. It is hereby notified with reference to the General Order (No. 67) for the present month, directing that flannel shirts are to be marked with red paint, that the charge for this service should not exceed a halfpenny a shirt. The charge will have to be borne by the soldier, except when the shirt is issued as part of the free kit.

2. The rates sanctioned by article 87, Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865, will include this charge.

Cl. 67.—Payments to Indian Officers on Leave in the Colonies.

1. The Secretary of State for War has consented to permit Indian officers on leave in the Colonies to draw their pay through the Military Accountant at the station.

2. The requisite authorities for such payments will be sent direct by the Indian Government to the Controller of Army Expenditure in the several Colonies, who will immediately on receipt of the same instruct the Military Accountant to issue the amounts specified.

3. Specific authority will be given in each case, and no payments will be made until the authority is received.

4. The Military Accountant will be careful to enter separately in his account current, under the head of "Repayments, Indian Government," the sums paid for this service, and will attach the original authorities to the pay lists.

Cl. 68.—Allowance for Cleaning Offices.

The certificate on the form of voucher to be used in support of claims for the allowance for cleaning offices has been revised. Copies of the amended form (W. O. Form, No. 1413) [see Appendix] may be obtained on application at the War Office.

Cl. 69.—Preparation of Estimates.

1. Officers of the various departments will, in future, be careful to show on their annual estimates and demands for stores the quantities of old stores which they propose should be utilized by their departments, and also give an estimate of their value.

2. Departments which supply these old and condemned stores will not make any charge on their account against the votes of the department demanding them.

Cl. 70.—Paymasters' Account Books.

1. Every paymaster is henceforward required to keep a strict official record of his public accounts, for which purpose he will be supplied, on requisition, with—

(1) A general account book; (2) A ledger.

2. These books will be considered public property. They will be inspected by the general officer commanding the station or district, in accordance with paragraph 1495 Queen's Regulations, and will be produced at such other times as the general or other officer commanding may think proper to call for them. They will also be open at all times to the inspection of any officer delegated by the Secretary of State for War to examine them.

3. The general account book should include a record of all transactions in the exact order of their occurrence, whether payment or receipt of cash, or matters of account only, such as advances, &c., due to one party and chargeable to another.

4. The requisite entries in the general account book must be made immediately the transaction occurs. This is, moreover, necessary to enable the paymaster to balance his cash after the completion of the day's payments, and in order that such cash balance may be verified at any time.

5. Every item in the general account book must be posted to its appropriate account in the ledger.

The division of the several accounts in the ledger must be governed by the nature of the paymaster's transactions; but the result of the several divisions in the ledger, when brought together in a "balance sheet," as hereinafter mentioned, must agree with the result shown by the general account book.

6. In addition to a distinct ledger account with each troop, company, battery or detachment rendering separate sub-accounts to the paymaster, and in addition to such other and distinct ledger accounts as may be necessary, according to the nature of the paymaster's transactions, the "public" or "War Office" account will be of chief importance, as the balance thereof at the end of each quarterly period should show an exact agreement with that of the pay list when completed.

7. If the paymaster deposits his funds in a bank, which he can only do wholly at his own risk, his account of public money at such bank must be kept entirely distinct from any private account.

His banking book must also be produced for inspection, with his other books when required.

8. The general account book and the several accounts in the ledger must be closed simultaneously at the end of each quarter (except in the case, hereinafter referred to, of a transfer of the duties from one paymaster to another) and a "balance sheet" must at the same time be prepared, showing an agreement of the result of the entries made in the general account book, with the result of those made in the ledger up to the same date. The balances thus proved and shown by the balance sheet will be carried forward, in both the general account book and ledger, to the next quarter's accounts.

9. On any change in the appointment of a paymaster, or on any occasion requiring that the duties should be transferred from one paymaster to another, the books, duly completed and closed to the time of transfer, will be handed over to the succeeding officer, with a certified "balance sheet."

Such balance sheet should be made and signed in duplicate, the original to be retained, with the books, by the succeeding officer, and the duplicate by the outgoing paymaster.

10. This regulation will take effect from the commencement of the quarter following the publication of this memorandum, and paymasters who have hitherto used either of the forms of account book promulgated with W. O. Circular Letter of 18th January, 1858, or with Clause 59 of Army Circular No. 8, of 1st September, 1867, as well as other paymasters who may desire to do so, may use such forms of account until the receipt of further instructions.

CLOTHING.

Cl. 71.—Wicker Helmets for Troops going to India.

1. Difficulty being at present experienced by the clothing authorities in India in fitting with wicker helmets troops arriving in that country, officers commanding regiments, batteries or battalions ordered to India, and officers commanding depôt battalions, will in future forward to the Under Secretary of State for India, India Office, London, S.W., size rolls of the troops ordered to embark.

2. These size rolls should be prepared according to the ordinary head-dress measurement of each corps, and should be forwarded to the India Office as soon as possible after the selection of the men for embarkation.

Cl. 72.—Necessaries—Regiments leaving India.

1. With reference to Circular Memorandum No. 372, dated "Horse Guards, 6th May, 1866," officers commanding are informed that regiments or batteries leaving India for Home Stations or the Colonies should transfer to regiments remaining in that country, or should return to the local authorities, such articles of necessaries as are peculiar to service in India.

2. In accordance with the provisions of the General Order by the Governor General of India, dated 31st December, 1864, No. 1080, commanding officers of regiments or batteries under orders for relief from India may transfer such necessaries as can be conveniently spared to any other regiment or battery serving in India which may apply for them.

3. Regiments or batteries leaving India, will, however, take with them, and account for to the War Office, all such articles of regimental necessaries, detailed in the regulations, as are not special to India, and remain on regimental charge after the transfer alluded to in the foregoing paragraph.

4. This clause is applicable to India.

BARRACK DEPARTMENT.

Cl. 73.—Fuel, Light and Straw—Troops under Canvas.

In all cases where troops are put under canvas in the vicinity of permanent barracks, from want of barrack accommodation, the supply of fuel, light and straw will be made by the local barrackmaster.

A strip of kamptulicon or other suitable material, about 3 feet wide, round the table.

The necessary lights, raised benches, fenders and fire irons.

2. Fair wear repairs to the lights and benches will be made, and the fenders and fire irons will be replaced when necessary at the public expense.

3. The whole of the remaining articles must be maintained and left by the officers themselves in good working order, and it must be distinctly understood that under no circumstances will any expenditure for their repair or renewal be admitted as a charge against the public.

4. The commanding officer of each regiment or corps using a billiard room will be held responsible that the articles detailed above are thus maintained and left in good working order. Barrackmasters will not therefore be required to inspect a billiard room, except when a regiment or corps is to be relieved. The room, with the whole of the articles therein, will then be inspected by the barrackmaster, assisted by a member of the Royal Engineer department, and if any repairs are then found to be required the barrackmaster, assisted by the Royal Engineer department, will estimate the amount necessary for executing them, and will cause such repairs to be made forthwith, in order that the room and articles therein may be perfectly fit to hand over to the incoming troops. Whenever practicable, arrangements should be made for the repairs to be executed by the firm which first supplied the articles.

5. The amount assessed for repairs will be at once credited to the public by the paymaster of the outgoing corps, and it will rest with the officer commanding to repay the paymaster, which should be done by funds derived from the officers using the billiard room.

6. From the same source also must be paid the cost of all fuel and light required for the billiard room; no expense upon this account can be allowed to fall upon the public.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

Cl. 75.—Nomenclature of Diseases.

1. From 1st January, 1869, the nomenclature and classification of Diseases which have been prepared by the Royal College of Physicians, will be adopted in the returns of the Army Medical Department.

2. Revised forms of the weekly and quarterly returns are in course of preparation, and will be issued to be taken into use from the above date.

Cl. 76.—Medical Comforts, Troops on the March.

It is notified for the information and guidance of medical officers and purveyors that supplies of medical comforts are not to be issued from the purveyors' stores for the use of troops on the line of march, in the United Kingdom.

SURVEYS OF MILITARY PRISON STORES.

Cl. 77.

1. The regulations contained in Clause 30, Army Circulars, 1867, showing the course to be pursued in condemning unserviceable barrack and hospital stores, will apply in future also to stores in use in military prisons.

2. These stores, after condemnation, will be handed over to the barrackmaster, who will take steps for disposing of them in the usual manner. The separate communication hitherto made from the War Office directing barrackmasters to receive and dispose of unserviceable prison stores will not in future be made, but the order for the assembly of the Board of Survey will be considered by the barrackmaster as a sufficient authority for disposing of the articles condemned.

TOOLS FOR REPAIRING RIFLE RANGES.

Cl. 78.

Tools required for repairing rifle ranges and butts are to be obtained by officers commanding regiments from the nearest military store station. They will be issued on loan, as a local charge, in accordance with regulations laid down in Circular 868.

G.O. 57.—National Rifle Association Army Prizes.

(Specially issued on 20th June, 1868.)

The accompanying Memoranda showing the conditions of competition for the Army Prizes and Challenge Cup, given by the National Rifle Association to be shot for at the ensuing Wimbledon Meeting, are published for general information.

Two competitors are allowed to be furnished by each battalion of Infantry at home, and by each depôt of those on foreign service,—with a like number for every 600 men of the corps of Royal Engineers;—and it being necessary that the names of the several candidates should be received before the end of the month, commanding officers of battalions and depôts will transmit one of the accompanying "Forms of Entry" O., properly filled up, to the Adjutant General, and another to the Secretary to the National Rifle Association, with the least possible delay, holding the men in readiness to proceed to Wimbledon according to arrangements to be made by the Quarter Master General under charge of officers to be hereafter named for duty with them, and who, when practicable, are to be selected from those who may be permitted to place their services at the disposal of the Association.

The men are to be fully equipped in every respect, and it must be distinctly understood that none but marksmen are eligible. Special care must be taken, in selecting men for this honorable duty, that preference is given, not only to those who are good shots, but also to such as are of good character and steady habits, and who will be likely in every respect to do credit to their corps while absent therefrom.

The commanding officer of the battalion which gives the winner in the second stage will be held by the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief responsible for the safe custody of the "Challenge Cup," and for its return to the Secretary to the National Rifle Association whenever it may be required.

The names of the winners of prizes will be published in General Orders.

A memorandum is also enclosed showing the terms of competition for the £100 prize given by an officer of the Army, the shooting for which (this year) is to be included in the competition for the National Rifle Association Army Prizes.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 58.—Field Exercise.

I. The following paragraph is to be inserted in page 281 of "The Field Exercise and Evolutions of Infantry;"—

"Should it be required to form column on a central company, all the remaining "companies moving in rear, the caution will be OPEN (QUARTER-DISTANCE, or "CLOSE) COLUMN IN REAR OF No. —. The companies on the right of the com- "pany of formation will move into column next in rear of it, the highest "numbered company in front and so on in succession; the companies on the "left will move into column as in the ordinary formation on the right flank "company. Officers, &c., will take post as in column right in front."

II. Supports will in future come to "The Slope" as they step off; returning to "The Order" when they halt. The necessary correction should be made in paragraph X, p. 356.

G.O. 59.—Hospital Establishments.

I. The permanent hospital establishment of each regiment of cavalry or battalion of infantry of the line, at home and abroad, is to be as follows, viz.:—

1 non-commissioned officer as hospital serjeant;
3 privates as orderlies.

II. Whenever a detachment of more than 2 troops or companies is detached from head-quarters for duty at an out-station, it is to be accompanied, when practicable, by one of the orderlies above specified.

III. In the Royal Horse, Field or Garrison Artillery the permanent hospital establishment is to consist, as at present, of one hospital serjeant for the head-quarters of each brigade, and one orderly for each battery.

IV. The hospital servants for the Coast Brigade, Royal Artillery,
Depôt " "
Royal Engineers,
Cavalry Depôt,
Depôt Battalions,
Military Train,
and the Departmental Corps,
are to be furnished by the Army Hospital Corps.

G.O. 60.—Barrack Damages. (Quarter Master General.)

General officers and officers commanding corps are informed that no appeal regarding barrack damages will be taken into consideration for the future, unless it shall appear that the instructions contained in section 18 (III. and IV.) of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army," 1868, have been strictly attended to.

G.O. 61.—Duties in Barracks. (Quarter Master General.)

Several instances having recently been brought to notice of unauthorized alterations made in the gas-fittings and other interior arrangements of barracks, the special attention of commanding officers is directed to paragraph 937 of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army," 1868; and the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires it to be understood that any person found making such alterations without proper authority, will invariably be called upon to replace at his own expense the fitments as they originally stood, and will at the same time incur his Royal Highness's displeasure.

G.O. 62.—Regimental Charitable Funds.

Regimental benefit societies having been abolished by the act of 12 & 13 Vict. cap. 71, it is to be distinctly understood that subscriptions from officers are to be strictly confined to the funds authorized by regulation.

G.O. 63.—Mutiny Act and Articles of War.

The following supplementary Article of War (rendered necessary by an omission in the 106th Article appended to the Mutiny Act for the present year), having received the Queen's approval and signature, is promulgated for general information and guidance, viz. :—

"A general court martial, convened in any part of our dominions other than those "mentioned in the 106th of our Articles of War, shall consist of not less than "nine commissioned officers, each of whom shall have held a commission from "us for three years before the assembly of the court."

G.O. 64.—Postage of Letters of Army Schoolmasters and Schoolmistresses.

A Treasury Warrant has been issued granting to all army schoolmistresses the same privileges, in regard to letters addressed to or sent by them, on their own private affairs, as are at present enjoyed by army schoolmasters of all but the 1st class,—and by non-commissioned officers ;—and the superintending and 1st class schoolmasters in the army will be entitled to the same privileges in this respect as are now enjoyed by commissioned officers in the army.

G.O. 65.—Forms.

A revised form of "Balance and Cash Account Sheet" (W. O. Form, 1035), has been approved of and is to be adopted in all infantry regiments.

A specimen form is annexed for guidance (Appendix).

Supplies of blank forms may be obtained, upon requisition to the War Office, at the rate of 9*d.* per quire.

G.O. 66.—Boards on Arms, &c.

Instances having arisen in which military boards on the arms, accoutrements and appointments of regiments under orders for India have been held so close to the period of survey by the officers appointed by the War Office and the India Office, that sufficient time has not been allowed to replace the articles condemned, such boards are to be held at least two months prior to the embarkation of the regiment, in order to avoid confusion in the valuation statements of the surveying officers.

G.O. 67.—Clothing.

It having come to notice that soldiers disposed to sell their necessaries possess great facilities in making away with the regimental flannel shirts, commanding officers are directed to cause all such shirts to be marked before issue with red paint, which, if allowed to dry properly, cannot be obliterated except by cutting the stamped piece out of the garment.

For instructions as to the charge to be made for this service, see Army Circulars for the present month.

G.O. 68.—Insane Soldiers.

Much inconvenience having resulted from the present mode of dealing with insane soldiers, the following regulations are for the future to be strictly complied with.

An insane soldier, whether at home or abroad, should, under ordinary circumstances, be attended by the medical officer of the corps to which he belongs for one month at least, as the latter, from knowing the probable origin and causes of the attack, is considered the most competent to treat the disease in its earlier stage.

If after such period of treatment the patient should not recover, or, if in consequence of exceptional circumstances which do not admit of delay, it be desirable to remove him, application should be made by the medical officer in charge, to the Director General, if at home, or to the principal medical officer if abroad, for permission to transfer the insane soldier to a general military hospital, or to any other establishment in which lunatic wards exist,—in which latter case, if it be a private asylum or other asylum unconnected with the War Department, no order for admission should be given without authority having been previously obtained from the Secretary of State for War.

Such applications should be accompanied by an abstract of the case, drawn up in accordance with the instructions laid down in page 106 of the "Medical Regulations," together with a copy of the soldier's medical history sheet, and a statement of the reasons which induce the medical officer in charge of the case to believe that if discharged he will not be able to re-enter the service.

On receipt of the documents by the Director General, if at home, or by the principal medical officer if abroad, the necessary instructions will be issued for the disposal of the case.

Insane soldiers at home should not be brought before an invaliding medical board, or reported to the military authorities with a view to removal to a general military hospital or to an asylum, until the approval of the Director General, and of the Secretary of State in the latter case, has first been obtained in the manner above directed.

G.O. 69.—Soldiers' Messing. (Quarter Master General.)

I. Commanding officers will carry out, whenever practicable, the following regulations for the supply of groceries, vegetables, milk, &c., by contract, to the troops under their command,—for the removal of the refuse and disposal of the refuse fund, referred to in paragraph 403 of the "Queen's Regulations," 1868,—and for the keeping mess accounts;—which are promulgated with the view of improving the quality and reducing the cost of the soldier's messing to the utmost possible extent.

II. At stations where the regimental canteen system is in operation, groceries and other articles supplied by the canteen may, at the discretion of commanding officers, be obtained from the canteen instead of having recourse to contract.

III. At the camps, or other stations where certain articles are supplied by the commissariat, such articles are not to be included in any of the contracts.

IV. Commanding officers of Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers, Military Train, and departmental corps, will adhere as closely to these regulations as the detached nature of those branches of the service will permit.

V. On the arrival of any corps at a new station, the commanding officer will cause an advertisement (on Form A, Appendix) calling for tenders for the supply of groceries, vegetables, milk, &c., and the removal of the refuse, by contract, to be posted on the barrack gate and other public places. No contract is to be for a longer period than three months.

VI. No objection exists to the same person tendering for all these contracts, but separate and distinct tenders for each service must be sent in on the proper form.

VII. The several tenders are to be made on the forms given in the Appendix, and are to be subject to the terms and conditions specified in each, viz.:—

Those for the supply of groceries, on Form B.

Those for the supply of vegetables, &c., on Form C. Any other varieties of fruit, vegetables, or fish procurable at the station, may be added to the list of these articles.

Those for the supply of milk, on Form D.

Those for the removal of the refuse, on Form E.

VIII. An officer shall attend at the time and place appointed to receive the tenders and any samples that may accompany them. These samples he will take charge of until the assembly of a board.

IX. A board, consisting of a field officer as president (when practicable) and two captains, will be ordered to assemble for the purpose of examining the quality of the articles sent as samples, and of considering the eligibility of the proposed contractors.

X. The board will place the names of the different persons tendering on a list, in order of merit, with their observations in each case, and will submit the same to the commanding officer, who will then make his selection from this list, and after communicating with the officer in charge of the Quarter Master General's Department in the district or station, will complete the contracts with the persons thus chosen.

XI. All cases of breaches of contract, allowance of discount, or other irregularity that may occur in carrying out the contracts, are to be reported to the officer in charge of the Quarter Master General's Department in the district or station, who will enter them in a book which will contain the names of all persons who usually supply the troops, and will be kept for the information of commanding officers of corps.

XII. The hour for the delivery of articles should be fixed by the commanding officer, so as to admit of the contractors carrying out the same without the employment of extra hands, the cost of which would fall eventually upon the troops.

XIII. The serjeant cook, orderly corporal and company cooks will be present at the delivery, to examine and receive over the supplies for the different companies.

XIV. The orderly officer is also to attend, to see that they are of proper weight and good quality, and correctly entered in the pass books. He will bring any breach of contract to the notice of the commanding officer in his daily report.

XV. Should the orderly officer [in conjunction with the captain of the day or week in infantry, and in cavalry with the advice of any available captain or the adjutant,] reject any articles, the contractor must exchange them at once, in accordance with the conditions of contract, although he may appeal afterwards to the commanding officer.

XVI. In carrying out the arrangements for the disposal of the refuse referred to in paragraph 403 of the "Queen's Regulations," commanding officers will direct the proceeds of the sale of the refuse to be received by the quarter master, and to be devoted to the purchase, repair and washing of the clothing of the serjeant cook and company cooks, and to the provision of the requisite vegetable nets. Any balance that may then remain will be handed over to the paymaster for division among the companies, in proportion to the number of men in mess, for the improvement of the messing.

XVII. The contractors should be required to send in separate bills against each company and the band on the mornings of the 1st, 8th, 15th and 21st of each month (or should these days fall on Sunday on the following morning), with the annexed form of certificate at the foot of each account.

"I certify that I have personally compared this account with the pass book and find it correct, and I request the paymaster to pay the amount."

—— Signature of officer commanding

Date——. company or in charge of the band.

XVIII. The captains of companies and the officer in charge of the band, having satisfied themselves that these accounts are correct, will sign the certificate and forward the bills to the paymaster, who will pay the contractors the amount due from the corps in one entire sum at a fixed hour on the following day.

XIX. Commanding officers may exercise their discretion in directing the payments to contractors to be made monthly, should such an arrangement be found convenient.

XX. The orderly corporal of each company is to enter the amount of the bills daily in a small book [W. O. Book 48], which is to be left on a table in the recreation or other room for the information of the men. The month is to be divided in this book into four periods, viz.:—From 1st to 7th; 8th to 14th; 15th to 20th; 21st to end.

XXI. The whole of the money of the band mess must be spent exactly for each period, to facilitate keeping the accounts with the companies. The officer in charge of the band should send to the officers commanding companies, charges for the amount due from each man of the band mess on account of his messing; and, after obtaining the signature of each captain to a statement (on Form F, Appendix) of the sums chargeable against each company, should forward the statement to the paymaster.

G.O. 70.—Saddlery.

I. No rule having hitherto been laid down for roughing the stirrup irons in mounted services, his Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, in conjunction with the Secretary of State for War, approves of the following regulations being promulgated for the information and guidance of those concerned.

1. Stirrup irons are to be roughed every third year.

2. In the Royal Artillery, Royal Engineer Train and Military Train the service is to be performed by the artificer smiths attached to these corps without cost to the public.

3. In the Cavalry the work is to be done by the shoeing smiths, who will receive an allowance from the War Office for this purpose.

II. This triennial roughing of the stirrup irons is not to be considered discretionary, but is to be obligatory, and officers in command are to see that the service is regularly performed.
